How Sex is Re-Writing Modernity

Featuring
celebrated author Mary Eberstadt

Mary Eberstadt will be discussing her latest book Adam and Eve after the Pill, Revisited, providing insight into the legacy of the sexual revolution and the toll it has taken on Western society, specifically three main spheres: culture, politics, and Christianity.

Mary's other books include Primal Screams: How the Sexual Revolution Created Identity Politics; How the West Really Lost God; The Loser Letters, and Adam and Eve after the Pill. Mrs. Eberstadt's writing has appeared in many magazines and journals, such as the Wall Street Journal, Policy Review, and TIME.

She is a Senior Research Fellow at the Faith and Reason Institute and holds the Panula Chair at the Catholic Information Center in Washington, D.C. During the Reagan administration, she was speechwriter to Secretary of State George. She founded The Kirkpatrick Society in 2011, which mentors hundreds of writers. Her work can be found on her underline website.
